IN MY LITTLE GARDEN

Text / Lenia Major
Pictures / Clémence Pollet

It’s great! Why? Because now it’s the holidays... Let’s head to grandma’s and grandpa’s house! Grandpa has a surprise for his granddaughter. He saved her a square of his vegetable garden! As the days go by, our little girl takes care of her garden: she digs, sows and waters.. This is also a good opportunity to observe all the little inhabitants who come and visit her. A beautiful abundant album... just like nature!
THE INSECTS

Text / Claire Leceuvre
Pictures / Copucine Magile

The large blue butterfly is able to be adopted by an ant nest. What is its secret? Did you know that the "acacia" ants live in symbiosis with their host tree? Since the antiquity, doctors practice the maggot therapy. Fascinating, isn’t it? So don’t be afraid and discover the secrets of these wonderful little bugs!
MY LITTLE WORLD
The world of bacteria

Text and Pictures / Emmanuelle Houssais

All around you, there is a fascinating world you cannot see: the world of bacteria! There are billions of them, and they were the first inhabitants of Earth. On your skin, in your mouth, in your stomach..., they play an essential role in the well-functioning of the body.
AMAZING nature

BEFORE ME...
Explosion, evolution, coming to the world

Text and Pictures / Emmanuelle Houssais

We are on board for a surprising odyssey in time and space. From the infinitely big scale until the smallest possible, from the times before the Big Bang until the birth of a baby today. This wonderful and poetic album is a journey along the evolution of life on Earth.

RIGHTS SOLD IN Simplified Chinese, Korean, Italian, Basque, Spanish and Bregilian.

UNDER MY FEET...
Underground life

Text and Pictures / Emmanuelle Houssais

Under our feet a vast world of animals, some more visible some less, some more known some less, turns the ground into a rich compost that will feed plants when the time comes. The generous format of this album with highly accurate illustrations is teeming with details of the annual cycle of these little animals!
BY NIGHT
Nocturnal animals cycle of the day
Text / Marie Lescroart
Pictures / Emmanuelle Houssais
The Earth revolves around the Sun. Day after day, the moon rises. Even in this small garden. When the night comes, life is not quiet at all. Owls, nightingales, foxes... Everyone is looking for food or playing or singing as they please. And beautiful flowers bloom at night.

BIRDS!
Text / Éric Mathivet
Pictures / Capucine Magille
We track them in flight. We admire their plumage. We are surprised by their intelligence. Birds are delightful and amazing creatures!

ANIMALS!
Text / Françoise Laurent
Pictures / Capucine Magille
The tisserin’s fitness, the monkey’s gregariousness, the boa’s digestion, the white bear’s fur, the penguin’s walk, the manta ray’s flight...

THE BOOK OF MAGICALS ANIMALS
A journey to the heart of ancestral myths and scientific knowledges

Text / Fleur Daugey
Pictures / Chiara Dattola

Many myths grant magic powers to animals. To the Maya, the hummingbird is the messenger of the thoughts. By the Bobo, the chameleon is the creator of the world. By the combination of these fascinating stories and the scientific studies of the animals, we notice how much the human beliefs are not so far from reality.
WHAT DOES THE WOLF WANT

Text / Lenia Major
Pictures / Fabien Öckto Lambert

"Well Little Red Riding Hood, let me tell you a st..." Help, Grandmother! The wolf wants me to be stung! Once the Little Red Riding Hood is hidden, the Wolf has to find another victim. But he keeps on unsuccessfully to approach the other animals of the forest. But what if we go beyond appearances?

THE CLASS PHOTO

Text / Lenia Major
Pictures / Fabien Öckto Lambert

An unforgettable class photo... but for whom? The photographer calls pupils and put them under the cocoa-tree. They will take a class photo. Sadly (or funny) the photographer struggles to gather them and to make them stand still for our biggest laugh.

NOISES OF THE TOWN

Text / Inês d’Almeij – Pictures / Sébastien Chebret

The city is full of sounds: car horns, children's laughter, jackhammers... One night, Gaston is fed up: he can't sleep with all this racket! He flees to the top of a tree, on the hill overlooking the city. And that's where he hears it: the melody... the beautiful, sweet music... This book resonates with our urban lives, with a hint of poetry that captures our imagination.
THE LIFE OF AN OWL

Hoot, hoot, hoot! Once evening comes, the hooting of the owl hidden away in the hollow of a branch can be heard. Always alert, it watches for danger and prey thanks to its exceptional senses! The owl is also faithful and attentive with its little ones. In this album, we will learn that the owl is not the female of the horned owl.

THE LIFE OF A PENGUIN

Penguins live on ice floes. They have webbed feet and wings. They are birds but they can't fly! Yet, they are really good swimmers! So what are they doing, waddling behind each other? They're going off to find love!

THE LIFE OF A BEAR

In the mountains lives an animal with little round ears and big paws... the bear! Excellent runner, accomplished climber, an unrivalled fisher, he has a voracious appetite... he needs to stock up for winter! A documentary that combines sweetness with poetry.

THE LIFE OF A MACAQUE

A macaque is agile and full of life. Noisy and garish, it loves to fight, to squabble and at once reconcile and have fun with its congeners, upon the high branches of the trees. The macaque organizes its community life under the orders of a chief. Now it's time for the children to be deloused!

THE LIFE OF A DOLPHIN

With their shiny eyes and their everlasting smile, dolphins are top ranking acrobats. They always live in groups for hunting, coming breathing at the surface or raising babies. They have a high sense of solidarity and great mutual helping. They are faithful in friendship and keep up together for life!

THE LIFE OF A GIRAFFE

Giraffes are the tallest animals in the world, measuring up to 6 meters. Handy for nibbling leaves growing in acacia trees, but much less so for drinking... they have to arch their necks so low!
Nature Awakening!
A series of picture books for aspiring scientists. How do the plants grow? Where does the rain come from? Where do the ants go? These are questions that children do ask themselves at the earliest age!

L’IL Ladybirds
Life of ladybug
Text / Fleur Daugey
Pictures / Chloé du Colombier

Little miss Ladybird... before flying up into the sky, our little ladybird goes through many transformations. First as an egg, then as larva... then it grows and changes its skin, until its final metamorphosis! This is a clear, precise, aesthetic documentary album for all to learn more about the life of the ladybird.

L’IL Ants
Life within an ant-hill
Text / Fleur Daugey
Pictures / Chloé du Colombier

One, two, one, two... The ants are crossing the woods to get back to their ant hills. Before they could leave, they were first cleaners and factory workers. Beware! An alien! The ants come hastily inside while the warriors come fighting their enemy. Ants’ life is a busy one!

ÉNERGIES, CIRCULEZ!
The meridian’s system
Text / Pierre LEVASSEUR
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret
NEW

AN EXPLORATION OF THE GREAT FUNCTIONS OF THE HUMAN BODY!
Children are very curious about the way their body works.
To answer their questions in a precise and funny way,
this series help them understand their growth and health.

ENERGY! FLOW!
The meridian’s system
Our body is made of bones, muscles, arteries... and each organ has a function. There is also an essential energy, that flows through our body which is called Qi by the Chinese.
This Qi circulates through the meridians.
As in nature, this energy follows the season’s rhythm. Each meridian serves an organ, which provides it with energy and has an influence on our health and our emotions!
I know my body

1 COEUR, 2 POUMONS
Breathing
Text / Françoise Laurent
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret
Breathing is dead easy! We do it without even thinking... And yet renewing the air in our lungs requires an ingenious system: our brain, muscles, arteries, veins, etc. are all put to the test. From the pulmonary alveoli to the smallest arteriole, all of this is revealed!

1, 2, 3 LET’S MOVE...
The skeleton
Text / Françoise Laurent
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret
All of us can stand still. And we are able to run, walk, nod, and wink... All thanks to our skeleton, some muscles and a brain. The brain gives the orders, the muscles make the bones move, and they make the skeleton. A lovely picture book to explain and understand the machinery of our wonderful human body!

100% CONNECTED
The brain
Text / Éric Mathivet
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret
Up there, in our cranium, is the most mysterious of all our organs... It is the brain who gives all the necessary orders to make our body move, our breathing or our digestion. All without even paying attention! How is that? Thanks to all the nerves in our body.

A THOUSAND AND ONE FEELINGS
The five senses
Text / Françoise Laurent
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret
The hearing, the smell, the taste, the sight... One is missing... The sense of touch, of course! Our five senses enable us to discover and adapt ourselves to our environment. They provide us with all the necessary information about our surrounding world. Convenient? They are more than that!
WHAT HAPPENS TO THE FOOD WE EAT?

Digestion

Text / Françoise Laurent
Pictures / Sébastien Chebret

From the mouth, to the oesophagus, stomach, intestines, and colon... Whether in liquid or solid form, every type of food we eat follows the exact same digestive path. At each stage, the body transforms the food in order to extract either: fats, sugars, proteins, vitamins, or minerals from it... All of which are distributed to the muscles, blood, and organs. That’s digestion in a nutshell!
